Once Upon A Story: A Famous Author Retells Classic Stories With Passion And Spirit

Synopsis

Readers have long recognized Yair Weinstock's incredible storytelling flair. The author of many bestselling novels as well as the popular Tales of the Soul series, Yair Weinstock is an artist, creating masterpieces with nothing but ink on paper. His words paint a compelling picture of long-ago cities and faraway towns (and, yes, our own backyards too!). He introduces us to people we feel we know - or people we would love to meet. In this new collection of exciting, inspirational true stories, we follow a chassid on a mysterious mission of rescue in the island paradise of Curacao. We meet a lottery-winning rebbe who finds an unusual way to deal with his new fortune and a dead merchant who turns up, very much alive, on the eve of his wife's wedding. We read stories that show us the greatness of luminaries like the Baba Sali and the Sanzer Rebbe and others that reflect the strength of "just plain folks" like you and me.
