Customer Reviews

Stories seem to make learning tough lessons easier and allows them to cross generations. I read these aloud to my children and they too have been positively affected by them. The book is a keeper.

I love this book! I am a big fan of Rabbi Paysach Krohn and his mentor The Grand Rabbi Sholom Schwadron. The stories in this book are awesome! If you are looking to inspire yourself to become a better Jew this is a terrific place to start. Highly recommended. Zev Saftlas, Author of Motivation That Works: How to Get Motivated and Stay Motivated

There are few places you can search for stories with deep meaning and great values to teach your kids. I always look for those books that may contain stories that are treasures for parents that want to teach their kids with meaningful words and actions. This is one of those books.

Can't wait to get into these stories. I love stories that can impact your life in a personal way. Lots to learn from authors like Gibran, Og Mandino and now the Rabbi.
