Summarizes so eloquently the "hopes/despairs" of relationships. Purchasing this as X-mas gifts for all my girls that are hopelessly in love or going through a break-up - I did this with her last book and it was the perfect present and a unique take (and offered solace to them without me having to give advice/spend time with them, lol).

I'm really disappointed in this book. I feel like MMCM rushed this book and didn't put her all into it like she did in her last book. I would of liked more short stories. I read this in literally 15 mins. Not worth my $18.

This was an amazing sequel to her first book, Letters to the Man I have Loved. It delivered asap (but also because I have prime). Excellent book, can't wait for the next one!!

Honest voice. Loved the book. Check out my poetry book "Cancun," by Boots and on IG @poetrybyboots please :) Support artists!

It was pure beauty and wise. Loved everything about it. I can't wait for the next book, will be waiting patiently! '—

Very worth it. Even though this book is shorter than her other book I could relate to everything she said.â ‹
