Customer Reviews

Faces of War II is full of photographs, vignettes, poetry, and stories of the Korean War, taken from Korean War veterans themselves. It's not a book you'll read in one sitting, but more of the kind you keep on the coffee table to pick up over and over again. The recounts project the bravery, selflessness, patriotism, happiness, and sorrow of our armed forces in action. I have a great deal more respect for our veterans after reading this book.
